Lighting Safety Zone Guide

<h3>Zone 0</h3> Inside the bath or shower. Must be SELV type fittings installed. (Separated Extra Low Voltage -12v Max) due to water immersion. Minimum rating IP67	<h3>Zone 1</h3> 225cm above the bath or shower. Minimum rating IP44 If there is a likelihood of water jets being used for cleaning IP 67 rated fittings must be used as IP44 is unsuitable.	<h3>Zone 2</h3> The area stretching up to 60cm outside the perimeter of the bath, shower or water outlet of basin. Minimum rating IP44 If there is a likelihood of water jets being used for cleaning IP 67 rated fittings must be used as IP44 is unsuitable.
OUTSIDE ZONES - Anywhere outside zones 0, 1 & 2, where water jets are not used for cleaning purposes, the general rules of BS7671 apply. Where water jets are used for cleaning IP67 rating must apply.
OUTSIDE ZONES - Any electrical circuits in a bathroom must be protected by a 240v 30mA Residual Current Device (RCD).

Safety - The latest IEE wiring regulations have identified specific zones within the bathroom to indicate which type of electrical equipment can be installed. The diagram above shows the three bathroom zones 0, 1 and 2. With this in mind our low voltage lighting fittings have a minimum rating of IP44. We recommend that you use a registered electrician to carry out any electrical installation.

Terms & Conditions

Maintenance and Aftercare

Due to the nature of the materials used, bathroom furniture will be adversely affected by water spillage or heavy condensation. To avoid any deterioration in the cabinets or work surfaces it is important to wipe dry any excess moisture. Please note when cleaning cabinets use a cloth dampened with soapy water, do not use any abrasive cleaners or solvents. We recommend adequate ventilation by installing an extractor fan connected to an outside wall to reduce the harmful effects of condensation. This will minimise the risk of damage that can be caused to these products by prolonged exposure to moisture which bathrooms are prone to.

Installation

The installation should be in accordance with our fitting instructions. It is important that a waterproof sealant is used to seal any raw edges especially around basins and worktop joints. It is particularly important to seal along bath panel edges both vertically and horizontally.

Electrical Recommendations

If any electrical fittings are to be installed ensure that all installation of any electrical fittings such as lights and shaving sockets are carried out by a qualified electrician and conform with local building regulations. If you are in any doubt contact your local council Building Control office.

Guarantee

All Bathroom Colore bathroom furniture is manufactured to the highest quality, therefore all cabinets carry a 5 year guarantee. Guarantee details in full can be found on our website.
